

Duty to God Award

Summit Bechtel Reserve

The Scout Oath begins with duty to God and country, and the Scout Law ends with reverence. The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing an obligation to God. The Summit provides this optional award under the guidance of the unit Chaplain Aide. The goal of the award is to assist a participant in living out his/her "Duty to God."

To earn this award, please complete the following requirements:

1. Unit Chaplain Aide must attend the Chaplain Aide training on Sunday Night;
2. Participants should attend Summit Chapel Service or conduct unit led service during your stay;
3. Participate in daily devotionals guided by the Chaplain Aide. Devotional resources are provided on the Summit website;
4. Unit should participate in a daily "Thorns, Roses and Buds" session guided by the Chaplain Aide, and;
5. Raise awareness of the Religious Emblems Awards. Information can be found at the following site: https://filestore.scouting.org/filestore/pdf/512-879_WB.pdf
6. When the requirements are completed, present this sign-off sheet below at the trading post and the unit will be able to purchase the patch.
